

HARMON TRAINS GUNS ON BRYAN

Ohio Governor Replies to Volleys From Nebraskan.

ESTABLISHES ANANIAS CLUB

Democratic Candidate for President Opens His Campaign in Buckeye State With a Vigorous Assault on the Three-Time Standard Bearer. Denies Repudiating the Initiative and Referendum.

Wooster, O., May 14.—Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio began his campaign in Ohio for the presidential nomination with a reply to the attacks made on him by W. J. Bryan, who recently made a tour of the state.

Mr. Harmon declared he had been unanimously selected by the last state convention as Ohio's candidate for president and that it was not self-seeking which had put him before the country and subjected him to "the falsification and abuse which are disgracing American politics this year."

The governor said that the watch word adopted for the gubernatorial campaign was "Harmon has made good."

"But there were some who thought I had made too good," continued Mr. Harmon, "and to state of political bankruptcy from a bipartisan combination I had to be beaten. The Commoner's mailing list was secured and three separate circulars sent out filled with falsehood and denunciation. They bore Mr. Bryan's picture and urged his friends to vote against me because my re-election would make me the candidate for president."

"Now, as to Mr. Bryan. What has caused the change in his attitude toward me? At the national convention of 1904 he offered to place me in nomination if I would have the Ohio delegation reconsider their decision not to have my name presented."

Favored Election of Bryan.

"In 1908 I constantly urged his election, declaring I would willingly be defeated for governor if it would help him. And during our joint campaign he repeatedly praised my efforts in his behalf and told many persons he meant to offer me a place in his cabinet if he was elected."

"What have I done which leads him now to say I am not fit to be even a justice of the peace? He has stated not a single fact from my political record or elsewhere to justify his conduct, except that I repudiated the platform on the initiative and referendum. This is not true. I advocated before the joint caucus and signed when passed the bill authorizing resort to it in municipalities, which was all our constitution would permit."

"He says I am not a 'progressive,' but a 'reactionary.' This is merely calling names, the last resort in a poor case. If progressiveness means sincere and successful efforts to secure practical reforms in government, instead of mere talk, where has so much been accomplished as in Ohio during my administration?"

"Is Mr. Bryan really for the New Jersey governor? I do not recall a word he has said in his behalf. Is it because the governor never supported him, but wanted him 'knocked into a cocked hat?' The people of Nebraska have instructed him for the speaker. He cannot be for both. Is he really for either?"

POWDER TRUST DISSOLUTION

Court Takes Under Advisement Proposed Decree.

Philadelphia, May 14.—Counsel for the so called powder trust and the United States government appeared in the United States district court here and presented a form of decree agreed upon for the dissolution of the combination.

The argument of counsel became heated at times and finally William A. Glasgow, special counsel for the government, announced "he did not care whether the powder combination accepted the decree or not."

The proposed decree, which was taken under advisement by the court, calls attention to fifteen plants for the manufacture of dynamite, nineteen for the manufacture of black blasting powder, four for black sporting powder, two for smokeless sporting powder and two for government smokeless powder. These plants are located all over the country and the decree parcels them among three companies to be created out of the trust.

Aviator Seriously Injured.

Perry, Ia., May 14.—Aviator Ralph McMullen was seriously injured during a flight here. When more than 100 feet up the biplane turned over and fell. He suffered two broken legs, a broken shoulder bone and numerous other injuries, but probably will recover. Harry Williams, who accompanied him on the flight, was badly bruised, but not seriously injured.

Wyoming Democrats for Clark.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 14.—The Democratic state convention unanimously adopted the majority report of the committee on resolutions by which Wyoming's six delegates to the national convention are instructed to vote for Champ Clark "as long as there is a possibility of his nomination."

TAFT WIELDING CAUSTIC HAMMER

Unmercifully Pounds Roosevelt in Ohio Speeches.

SAYS COLONEL USES CAP "I"

President Accuses Colonel of Posing as the "Whole Show" and Asks What Would Become of the Country if the Rough Rider Were Wafted to the Skies in a Chariot Like the Prophet of Old.

Steubenville, O., May 14.—President Taft's first day of his campaign to urge the people of Ohio to support him in the primaries to be held May 21, which came to an end with a speech here, was marked by the most pronounced verbal assaults upon Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to which Mr. Taft so far has given public utterance. In speeches that were filled with indignant attack, that bubbled over with uncomplimentary adjectives he discharged his oratory at his predecessor in the White House.

He started at Marietta, in a cold hard rain, which kept up for several hours, but which finally fled before the sun.

Late in the day, when he spoke at Dennison, St. Clairsville, Belleaire and Bridgeport, the weather was fair and the crowds came out in summer attire.

At many points the president touched the steel manufacturing district of Ohio, which his political advisers openly said was opposed to his re-nomination. The crowds, however, were large enough and frequently demonstrative enough to make his Ohio friends feel slightly optimistic.

Although, in substance, all of the dozen speeches the president made were much like those he delivered in Massachusetts and Maryland, they differed widely at times in the words used to score Mr. Roosevelt. These were unusual and piquant and gave his hearers opportunity for applause and laughter, which seldom failed to come.

One of the attacks on Mr. Roosevelt which raised a laugh delivered at Dennison ran like this:

"I think it would be dangerous to put in the White House a man with Mr. Roosevelt's present constitutional views and with the intoxication he would necessarily feel by reason of getting something that all the great presidents have never got."

"He says the reason the American people are going to elect him is because he is necessary for the job. That is the description he gives. Well, I hope the American people will not think that he is necessary for the job. I want to call your attention to what the job is which he proposes. It is the millennium that he is going to bring about when he gets into office. All bosses are going to disappear, politicians are going to be fewer and he is going to have a finger in every community, in every state, in every county and everything is going to heaven."

"If that be true the millennium is coming and if that is the job he is to do it is going to take longer than four years. I beg of you to ask him when he comes here whether he would take a fourth term, ask him whether he is going to take a fifth term and why he should not continue in office during his life."

Another sally that brought a response was delivered at Cambridge Springs where President Taft asked:

"Suppose Mr. Roosevelt were wafted to the skies in a chariot like the prophet of old and were to disappear from sight how do you suppose this country would get along, anyhow?"

"My friends, it is a dangerous thing to put in the White House a man for the third term with his views of the Constitution and with his views of himself."

"In every announcement he makes you would think he was the whole show and that there wasn't anybody else in the country. It's I, I, I; and, therefore, I say that if you feed that vanity and that egotism by giving him something that Washington did not get, and Jefferson did not get, and Jackson did not get, and Grant could not get, you are going to put him in office with a sense of power and with a view of constitutional restriction that will be dangerous to this country."

"I hold that the man is a demagogue and a flatterer, who comes out and tells the people they know it all. I hate a flatterer."

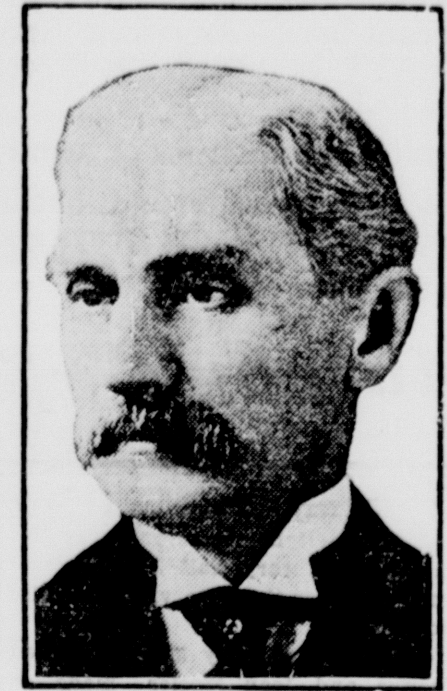

"I like a man to tell the truth straight out and I hate to see a man try to honeyfuge the people by telling them something he doesn't believe."

Mr. Taft compared Roosevelt and Lincoln with a smile.

"Mr. Roosevelt likens himself to Abraham Lincoln more and resembles him less than any man in the history of this country," he remarked.

Mr. Taft called upon the Roosevelt backers to find one indictment if he had done wrong, asked for more facts and less "lurid headlines and lung power," and dubbed the campaign the former president is making against him "accusatory and libelous."

SENATOR CLARK.
One of Wyoming's Delegates to the Republican Convention.

WYOMING SOLID FOR TAFT

Republican Convention Picks Six Delegates to Chicago.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 14.—The Republican convention elected the following delegates to the national convention: Senator S. E. Warren, Senator Clarence D. Clark, Congressman H. Mondell, Patrick Sullivan, W. H. Huntley and W. L. Wall. Delegate Huntley is the leader of the Roosevelt delegation from Sheridan county.

The delegation is instructed for President Taft, whose administration was endorsed, as also was the work of senators and representatives in congress.

COLONEL SECURES SOLID DELEGATION

Roosevelt Has Twenty-four Votes From Minnesota.

St. Paul, May 14.—County conventions held throughout Minnesota showed beyond a doubt that Colonel Roosevelt will have the entire twenty-four delegates from this state to the national convention at Chicago. The conventions showed Minnesota's anti-Taft sentiment to be stronger than the first returns from the caucuses Saturday night indicated, but La Follette appeared fully as well as he did Saturday night, although he was unable to control any congressional district.

Talk that La Follette might carry the Ninth district and get those two delegates went glimmering when Polk county, which the Taft men threatened to take away from Roosevelt by going over to La Follette, instructed its delegates for the colonel. Kittson county, which gave Roosevelt a majority on the preferential vote, instructed for La Follette.

President Taft has an instructed delegation from only one county, Winona, where former Congressman Tawney was able to control the delegation.

CONTROL ALL COMMITTEES

Conservative Socialists Defeat Industrial Workers.

Indianapolis, May 14.—Antagonists in the Socialist convention to a platform declaration approving the unit form of labor organization, as opposed to the crafts plan of the American Federation of Labor, succeeded in selecting a majority of the platform, constitution, resolutions and labor organization committees of the convention.

After the report of the tellers of the ballots was read Representative Victor L. Berger of Wisconsin, speaking for the "conservative" delegates, announced that not only would the convention refuse to endorse "industrial unionism," but would go on record as condemning the methods of the Industrial Workers of the World.

"We have more than 75 per cent of the 280 delegates," said Mr. Berger, "and it is certain the convention will assert the Socialist party's withdrawal from any 'free speech' or 'revolutionary action' campaigns instigated by the Industrial Workers."

AUTOS DEADLY IN CHICAGO

Seventy-five Killed and 1,590 Injured in Fifteen Months.

Chicago, May 14.—Stringent action to prevent automobile and motorcycle accidents in Chicago was urged by Mayor Harrison in a communication to the city council.

He pointed out that in the last fifteen months seventy-five persons have been killed and 1,590 injured by these two classes of machines. Ten of this number were killed by motorcycles.

LIABILITY LAW IS UPHELD

Federal Supreme Court Sustains Nebraska Statute.

Washington, May 14.—The supreme court affirmed without argument the judgment obtained in Nebraska by Ozro Castle for injuries received while working for the Missouri Pacific Railway company. By so doing the court upheld the constitutionality of the Nebraska employers' liability law.

ALL WANT TO GO TO CONVENTIONS

That Is the Reason For Talk of a Congress Recess.

FIRST REAL CONTESTS IN YEARS

Nominees of Both Great Parties Cannot Be Foretold With Positiveness. Alaska Would Hold an Exposition in 1917 to Celebrate Her Semicentennial. Rucker on Rules.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 14.—[Special.]—Talk of adjourning over during the national conventions originated in the desire of senators and members to attend the national conventions. There is a great desire on the part of men in both branches to be present at the respective conventions of their party.

This can well be understood when we consider that for the first time since 1896 there is a real contest for the nomination in the Democratic party, and for the first time since 1888 there is a contest in the Republican party. I mean that there are contests which make the outcome uncertain and doubtful. The nominations of the two great parties will be decided in the conventions, and no one can say with positiveness who will be selected until the votes are announced.

Makes Conventions Interesting.

It is the contest for first place on the ticket that makes conventions interesting. When it is a foregone conclusion, such as has been the case for more than twenty years, with the exception of the Democratic convention in 1896, who was to be named for president, there was no real interest in the convention, such as we have this year. Both conventions are in doubt; hence the big men of the two parties want to be there to see the political strife, to give advice, to take a hand in the proceedings. That is why there is talk of a recess, which will give time for men of both parties to attend the national conventions.

Alaska's Fifty Years.

Don't we all think of Alaska as a brand new country, the newest of all new countries? Of course, but here comes Delegate Wickersham with a bill providing for an exposition in Alaska to celebrate a semicentennial. He proposes that the exposition shall be held at Fairbanks in 1917 to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the purchase of Alaska. He has something to say in the whereas preceding the bill, asserting that Alaska has created a wealth greater than a billion dollars, and in the forty-five years since it came to the United States there has been an actual production of fur, fish and mineral products of more than $446,000,000. How time flies!

Rucker on Rules.

Congressman Rucker of Colorado generally amuses the house when he strikes a lighter vein. He "went to bat" for an increase of salaries for secretaries to congressmen, but as the proposition first to be settled was a point of order he was rather lame on the procedure. He had not gone far when he was told by Chairman Underwood to confine himself to the point of order.

"I was going to say, Mr. Chairman," continued Rucker, "that my remarks always sparkle like diamonds when I am discussing anything I know something about, but when I am assigned to a point of order I want a little bit to gather myself to even look at the proposition. I could not show up here as even a spurious gem of radiance in the discussion of a point of order if I had not been put forward by my genial friend from Illinois, Mr. Cannon, who asked me to take the laboring oar because I once discussed this matter before."

After more along the same line he expressed the hope that Mr. Underwood would make as good president as he was parliamentarian.

Underwood decided in favor of Rucker.

Difference in Legislators.

Congressman Garrett of Tennessee explained the difference between national and state legislators during a discussion of economy in the house. He said that when men returned from the state capital to their constituents they were met by taxpayers with a critical gleam in their eyes, who asked, "How much did you spend?" The national legislator met the same cold gleam, but the question was, "How much did you get?"

That explains the whole matter of extravagance in national expenditures. It is a constant game of grab and get. The man who cannot get money to spend in his district for public buildings, river and harbor improvements or in some other way becomes unpopular. That is why the proposition for good roads has proved so popular.

Senatorial Courtesy.

Senatorial courtesy is something that can be used to delay bills as well as to convenience senators. Senator Stone was complaining that no progress was being made with the metal tariff bill, which had been before the senate for several weeks.

"I assume," solemnly remarked Senator Gallinger, "that the senator from Missouri would not press the bill in the absence of the chairman of the finance committee."

Of course Stone disclaimed any such discourteous act.

Supreme Court Takes a Recess.

Washington, May 14.—The supreme court took a recess until May 27, when it will meet to announce decisions.

CLAUDE GRAHAME-WHITE.

Will Make Bridal Tour of Europe in Airship.

TOUR EUROPE BY AIRSHIP

Claude Grahame-White and Bride to Enjoy Novel Honeymoon.

London, May 14.—Since they disclosed the secret that they intend to tour Europe by airship friends of Claude Grahame-White, the English aviator, and Miss Dorothy Taylor of New York have flocked to Grahame-White's workshop to watch him tinkering at the most wonderful bridal conveyance conceived since Cinderella's pumpkin coach.

"This is to be no feverish, nervous little hop and skip air trip," he explained. "It's to be a journey and a long one. We shall do Europe thoroughly and we'll make that hackneyed phrase, 'out of the beaten path,' sound real for once. And as I am to have the honor of carrying the most precious passenger in the world I must look well after my machine."

SENATORS SQUABBLE OVER CANDIDATES

One Wants Roosevelt Cartoon in Congressional Record.

Washington, May 14.—Colonel Roosevelt was again the subject of a spirited passage in the senate.

Senator Stone asked permission to have reproduced in the Congressional Record a certain cartoon entitled "Saint Roosevelt, by Roosevelt," in which the colonel was represented as throttling trusts with one hand and political bosses with the other.

"I request that the cartoon be revised," said Senator Stone, "and instead of the impersonal trusts I would place McCormick of the harvester trust in one hand and Perkins of the steel trust in the other and then I would have him pictured with both feet planted on the prostrate form of Munsey."

Senator Burham, in charge of the agricultural bill, insisted that Mr. Stone's remarks had nothing to do with the subject.

"We are considering matters pertaining to the bureau of animal industry and may well give some attention to human industry," interjected Senator Gallinger, amid laughter.

Senator Snoot, chairman of the printing committee, invoked the rule which forbids illustrations in the Record. "I take it that the senator's word picture will go into the Record and that ought to be sufficient," said he.

"That shows the senator from Utah is not so much of a Taft man as he had been supposed," returned Senator Stone, and the incident was closed.

CAN OF GASOLINE EXPLODES

Two Children Dead and Mother in Critical Condition.

White Earth, N. D., May 14.—Two children were killed when a can of gasoline was overturned and exploded in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Wardlow in this city. Their five-months-old and two-year-old daughters were the victims.

The mother, in trying to save her babies from death, was seriously burned herself and may die. The children were in the midst of the flames when she rushed in and dragged them out, but not until they had been so badly burned that one died in a few minutes, the other dying five hours later.

The shock of the death of her children and the burns she received have been responsible for Mrs. Wardlow's critical condition and it is not believed she can recover.

AMERICAN KILLED IN ENGLAND

V. L. Mason One of Victims in Double Aereplane Tragedy.

London, May 14.—Victor Louis Mason, an American identified with extensive mining interests and at one time private secretary to the American secretary of war, General R. A. Alger, and to his successor, Elihu Root, was killed while making a flight at Brooklands with the English aviator, E. V. Fisher. Fisher also was killed, by being pitched out of the machine when at a height of about 150 feet.

AFTER PROLONGED DEBATE

Methodists Vote to Retain Ban on Amusements.

Minneapolis, May 14.—After a prolonged and heated debate covering two entire sessions the committee on the state of the church, by a two to one vote, adopted the minority report of the subcommittee on amusements, declaring for the retention in the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church paragraph 260, prohibiting dancing, theater going, attending horse races and circuses, games of chance and liquor drinking on penalty of expulsion.

FLOOD DANGER

Encouraging Reports on Lower Mississippi Situation.

New Orleans, May 14.—With the exception of Conrad's point, six miles below Baton Rouge, where sand boils have developed near the base of the levee, only encouraging reports were received at the offices of the United States engineers of the Mississippi river flood situation. The weather bureau reported the river at a stand at Baton Rouge, while other points from Cairo, south reported falling stages. Fine weather prevailed all over Louisiana.

House Approves Plan for Popular Election of Senators.

SENATE HAD ALREADY ACTED

All That Now Remains is Signing of Resolution and Issuance of Proclamation to the States to Signify Their Wishes on the Proposed Change—Southern Members Bitterly Oppose Measure's Passage.

Washington, May 14.—The house adopted, 237 to 29, a joint resolution to permit the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. It already had passed the senate and now goes to the states for ratification.

All that remains to be done is the formal signing of the instrument and the issuance of a proclamation to the states to signify their wishes on the proposed change.

The vote was preceded by a bitter fight, in which the Southern members joined common cause against the resolution. Led by Representative Bartlett of Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana delegates fought to prevent its passage because of the senate amendment which gave the federal government supervision over the elections. They based their opposition almost entirely on the danger of negro domination.

The first vote taken was on an amendment by Representative Bartlett, which took from the federal government all supervisory powers. It was defeated, 189 to 89. On the vote for the adoption of the resolution, two-thirds of the house being necessary, fifty Democrats deserted.

There was not a single Republican vote cast against the resolution, which was adopted to the accompaniment of thunderous applause.

Direct election of senators was first taken up by congress in 1826. From time to time recurring attempts have been made to make the senate a popular body and have its members elected as are the members of the house. Numbers of these resolutions have died in committee, while others were passed at the last moments of a congress never to receive the president's signature.

Senator Bristow of Kansas introduced in 1911 the resolution that passed. Amended by the house it has been in conference since July 5 last year and if the house had not receded from its opposition to granting federal supervision of elections it might have met the fate of the others.

It was this danger that led the house to agree not to press its views.

PATROL FOR BRITISH COAST

New Scheme of Naval Defense Instituted for United Kingdom.

London, May 14.—Under a new scheme of defense instituted by Winston Spencer Churchill the destroyers of the British fleet commenced this month the continuous patrol of the coasts of the United Kingdom. The northeast coast, menaced as it is by the powerful fleet of the German empire, is necessarily most closely guarded and there the most modern and powerful vessels of the mosquito fleet, supported by submarines, have been stationed.

The whole available forces have been organized into eight flotillas, four in full commission and four in reserve. Of the four active flotillas the first and second, composed of thirty-six of the newest and most powerful vessels, have their base at the naval headquarters at Rosyth, on the east coast of Scotland, facing directly across to Germany.

REBEL ARMY IN BAD TRAP

Force of 2,000 Caught in Canyon and Nearly Annihilated.

El Paso, Tex., May 14.—The slaughter of rebels at Cuatro Ciénegas and vicinity a few days ago was perhaps the most painful blow thus far inflicted upon the insurrecto army.

A dispatch declares the rebels under General Palazar were caught in a canyon and his force of 2,000 was nearly annihilated. Some escaped by climbing over the rocks out of the death trap and others were shot to death from above, where the federal fire was continued for hours with terrible accuracy.

Some of the retreating rebels were overtaken on the desert and killed. Others died from lack of food and water. The barren plains between Cuatro Ciénegas and Sierra Mojada, a distance of 100 miles, are said to be strewn with rebel dead.

SPLIT MARYLAND DELEGATES

Instructed for Colonel, but Half of Taft Men Selected.

Baltimore, May 14.—An agreement was reached at a conference between the leaders of the Taft and the Roosevelt forces to split even on Maryland's delegation to the Republican national convention.

HARMON TRAINS GUNS ON BRYAN

Ohio Governor Replies to Volleys From Nebraskan.

ESTABLISHES ANANIAS CLUB

Democratic Candidate for President Opens His Campaign in Buckeye State With a Vigorous Assault on the Three-Time Standard Bearer. Denies Repudiating the Initiative and Referendum.

Wooster, O., May 14.—Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio began his campaign in Ohio for the presidential nomination with a reply to the attacks made on him by W. J. Bryan, who recently made a tour of the state.

Mr. Harmon declared he had been unanimously selected by the last state convention as Ohio's candidate for president and that it was not self-seeking which had put him before the country and subjected him to "the falsification and abuse which are disgracing American politics this year."

The governor said that the watchword adopted for the gubernatorial campaign was "Harmon has made good."

"But there were some who thought I had made too good," continued Mr. Harmon, "and to state of political bankruptcy from a bipartisan combination I had to be beaten. The Commoner's mailing list was secured and three separate circulars sent out filled with falsehood and denunciation. They bore Mr. Bryan's picture and urged his friends to vote against me because my re-election would make me the candidate for president."

"Now, as to Mr. Bryan. What has caused the change in his attitude toward me? At the national convention of 1904 he offered to place me in nomination if I would have the Ohio delegation reconsider their decision not to have my name presented."

Favored Election of Bryan.

"In 1908 I constantly urged his election, declaring I would willingly be defeated for governor if it would help him. And during our joint campaign he repeatedly praised my efforts in his behalf and told many persons he meant to offer me a place in his cabinet if he was elected."

"What have I done which leads him now to say I am not fit to be even a justice of the peace? He has stated not a single fact from my political record or elsewhere to justify his conduct, except that I repudiated the platform on the initiative and referendum. This is not true. I advocated before the joint caucus and signed when passed the bill authorizing resort to it in municipalities, which was all our constitution would permit."

"He says I am not a 'progressive,' but a 'reactionary.' This is merely calling names, the last resort in a poor case. If progressiveness means sincere and successful efforts to secure practical reforms in government, instead of mere talk, where has so much been accomplished as in Ohio during my administration?"

"Is Mr. Bryan really for the New Jersey governor? I do not recall a word he has said in his behalf. Is it because the governor never supported him, but wanted him 'knocked into a cocked hat?' The people of Nebraska have instructed him for the speaker. He cannot be for both. Is he really for either?"

POWDER TRUST DISSOLUTION

Court Takes Under Advisement Proposed Decree.

Philadelphia, May 14.—Counsel for the so called powder trust and the United States government appeared in the United States district court here and presented a form of decree agreed upon for the dissolution of the combination.

The argument of counsel became heated at times and finally William A. Glasgow, special counsel for the government, announced "he did not care whether the powder combination accepted the decree or not."

The proposed decree, which was taken under advisement by the court, calls attention to fifteen plants for the manufacture of dynamite, nineteen for the manufacture of black blasting powder, four for black sporting powder, two for smokeless sporting powder and two for government smokeless powder. These plants are located all over the country and the decree parcels them among three companies to be created out of the trust.

Aviator Seriously Injured.

Perry, Ia., May 14.—Aviator Ralph McMullen was seriously injured during a flight here. When more than 100 feet up the biplane turned over and fell. He suffered two broken legs, a broken shoulder bone and numerous other injuries, but probably will recover. Harry Williams, who accompanied him on the flight, was badly bruised, but not seriously injured.

Wyoming Democrats for Clark.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 14.—The Democratic state convention unanimously adopted the majority report of the committee on resolutions by which Wyoming's six delegates to the national convention are instructed to vote for Champ Clark "as long as there is a possibility of his nomination."

TAFT WIELDING CAUSTIC HAMMER

Unmercifully Pounds Roosevelt in Ohio Speeches.

SAYS COLONEL USES CAP "I"

President Accuses Colonel of Posing as the "Whole Show" and Asks What Would Become of the Country if the Rough Rider Were Wafted to the Skies in a Chariot Like the Prophet of Old.

Steuvenville, O., May 14.—President Taft's first day of his campaign to urge the people of Ohio to support him in the primaries to be held May 21, which came to an end with a speech here, was marked by the most pronounced verbal assaults upon Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to which Mr. Taft so far has given public utterance. In speeches that were filled with indignant attack, that bubbled over with uncompromising adjectives he discharged his oratory at his predecessor in the White House.

He started at Marietta, in a cold hard rain, which kept up for several hours, but which finally fled before the sun.

Late in the day, when he spoke at Dennison, St. Clairsville, Belleair and Bridgeport, the weather was fair and the crowds came out in summer attire.

At many points the president touched the steel manufacturing district of Ohio, which his political advisers openly said was opposed to his re-nomination. The crowds, however, were large enough and frequently demonstrative enough to make his Ohio friends feel slightly optimistic.

Although, in substance, all of the dozen speeches the president made were much like those he delivered in Massachusetts and Maryland, they differed widely at times in the words used to score Mr. Roosevelt. These were unusual and piquant and gave his hearers opportunity for applause and laughter, which seldom failed to come.

One of the attacks on Mr. Roosevelt which raised a laugh delivered at Dennison ran like this:

"I think it would be dangerous to put in the White House a man with Mr. Roosevelt's present constitutional views and with the intoxication he would necessarily feel by reason of getting something that all the great presidents have never got."

"He says the reason the American people are going to elect him is because he is necessary for the job. That is the description he gives. Well, I hope the American people will not think that he is necessary for the job. I want to call your attention to what the job is which he proposes. It is the millennium that he is going to bring about when he gets into office. All bosses are going to disappear, politicians are going to be fewer and he is going to have a finger in every community, in every state, in every county and everything is going to heaven."

"If that be true the millennium is coming and if that is the job he is to do it is going to take longer than four years. I beg of you to ask him when he comes here whether he would take a fourth term, ask him whether he is going to take a fifth term and why he should not continue in office during his life."

Another rally that brought a response was delivered at Cambridge Springs where President Taft asked:

"Suppose Mr. Roosevelt were wafted to the skies in a chariot like the prophet of old and were to disappear from sight how do you suppose this country would get along, anyhow?"

"My friends, it is a dangerous thing to put in the White House a man for the third term with his views of the constitution and with his views of the country."

"In every announcement he makes you would think he was the whole show and that there wasn't anybody else in the country. It's I, I, I; and, therefore, I say that if you feed that vanity and that egotism by giving him something that Washington did not get, and Jefferson did not get, and Jackson did not get, and Grant did not get, you are going to put him in office with a sense of power and with a view of constitutional restriction that will be dangerous to this country."

"I hold that the man is a demagogue and a flatterer, who comes out and tells the people they know it all. I hate a flatterer."

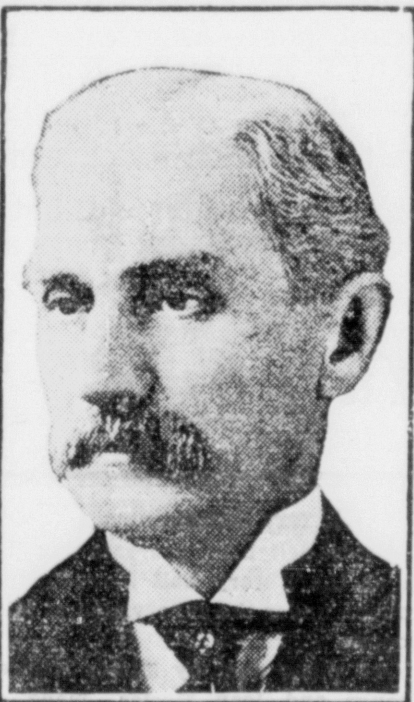

"I like a man to tell the truth straight out and I hate to see a man try to honeyfuge the people by telling them something he doesn't believe."

Mr. Taft compared Roosevelt and Lincoln with a smile.

Mr. Roosevelt likens himself to Abraham Lincoln more and resembles him less than any man in the history of this country," he remarked.

Mr. Taft called upon the Roosevelt backers to find one indictment if he had done wrong, asked for more facts and less "jurd headlines and lung power," and dubbed the campaign the former president is making against him "accusatory and libelous."

SENATOR CLARK.

WYOMING SOLID FOR TAFT

Republican Convention Picks Six Delegates to Chicago.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 14.—The Republican convention elected the following delegates to the national convention: Senator S. E. Warren, Senator Clarence D. Clark, Congressman H. Mondell, Patrick Sullivan, W. H. Huntley and W. L. Wall. Delegate Huntley is the leader of the Roosevelt delegation from Sheridan county.

The delegation is instructed for President Taft, whose administration was endorsed, as also was the work of senators and representatives in congress.

COLONEL SECURES SOLID DELEGATION

Roosevelt Has Twenty-four Votes From Minnesota.

St. Paul, May 14.—County conventions held throughout Minnesota showed beyond a doubt that Colonel Roosevelt will have the entire twenty-four delegates from this state to the national convention at Chicago. The conventions showed Minnesota's anti-Taft sentiment to be stronger than the first returns from the caucuses Saturday night indicated, but La Follette appeared fully as well as he did Saturday night, although he was unable to control any congressional district.

Talk that La Follette might carry the Ninth district and get those two delegates went glimmering when Polk county, which the Taft men threatened to take away from Roosevelt by going over to La Follette, instructed its delegates for the colonel. Kittson county, which gave Roosevelt a majority on the preferential vote, instructed for La Follette.

President Taft has an instructed delegation from only one county, Winona, where former Congressman Tawney was able to control the delegation.

CONTROL ALL COMMITTEES

Conservative Socialists Defeat Industrial Workers.

Indianapolis, May 14.—Antagonists in the Socialist convention to a platform declaration approving the unit form of labor organization, as opposed to the crafts plan of the American Federation of Labor, succeeded in selecting a majority of the platform, constitution, resolutions and labor organization committees of the convention.

After the report of the tellers of the ballots was read Representative Victor L. Berger of Wisconsin, speaking for the "conservative" delegates, announced that not only would the convention refuse to endorse "industrial unionism," but would go on record as condemning the methods of the Industrial Workers of the World.

"We have more than 75 per cent of the 280 delegates," said Mr. Berger, "and it is certain the convention will assert the Socialist party's withdrawal from any 'free speech' or 'revolutionary action' campaigns instigated by the Industrial Workers."

AUTOS DEADLY IN CHICAGO

Seventy-five Killed and 1,590 Injured in Fifteen Months.

Chicago, May 14.—Stringent action to prevent automobile and motorcycle accidents in Chicago was urged by Mayor Harrison in a communication to the city council.

He pointed out that in the last fifteen months seventy-five persons have been killed and 1,590 injured by these two classes of machines. Ten of these numbers were killed by motorcycles.

LIABILITY LAW IS UPHELD

Federal Supreme Court Sustains Nebraska Statute.

Washington, May 14.—The supreme court affirmed without argument the judgment obtained in Nebraska by Ozo Castie for injuries received while working for the Missouri Pacific Railway company. By so doing the court upheld the constitutionality of the Nebraska employers' liability law.

ALL WANT TO GO TO CONVENTIONS

That Is the Reason For Talk of a Congress Recess.

FIRST REAL CONTESTS IN YEARS

Nominees of Both Great Parties Cannot Be Foretold With Positiveness. Alaska Would Hold an Exposition in 1917 to Celebrate Her Semicentennial. Rucker on Rules.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 14.—[Special.]—Talk of adjourning over during the national conventions originated in the desire of senators and members to attend the national conventions. There is a great desire on the part of men in both branches to be present at the respective conventions of their party.

This can well be understood when we consider that for the first time since 1896 there is a real contest for the nomination in the Democratic party, and for the first time since 1888 there is a contest in the Republican party. I mean that there are contests which make the outcome uncertain and doubtful. The nominations of the two great parties will be decided in the conventions, and no one can say with positiveness who will be selected until the votes are announced.

Makes Conventions Interesting.

It is the contest for first place on the ticket that makes conventions interesting. When it is a foregone conclusion, such as has been the case for more than twenty years, with the exception of the Democratic convention in 1896, who was to be named for president, there was no real interest in the convention, such as we have this year. Both conventions are in doubt; hence the big men of the two parties want to be there to see the political strife, to give advice, to take a hand in the proceedings. That is why there is talk of a recess, which will give time for men of both parties to attend the national conventions.

Alaska's Fifty Years.

Don't we all think of Alaska as a brand new country, the newest of all new countries? Of course, but here comes Delegate Wickersham with a bill providing for an exposition in Alaska to celebrate a semicentennial. He proposes that the exposition shall be held at Fairbanks in 1917 to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the purchase of Alaska. He has something to say in the whereas preceding the bill, asserting that Alaska has created a wealth greater than a billion dollars, and in the forty-five years since it came to the United States there has been an actual production of fur, fish and mineral products of more than $446,000,000. How time flies!

Rucker on Rules.

Congressman Rucker of Colorado generally amuses the house when he strikes a lighter vein. He "went to bat" for an increase of salaries for secretaries to congressmen, but as the proposition first to be settled was a point of order he was rather lame on the procedure. He had not gone far when he was told by Chairman Underwood to confine himself to the point of order.

"I was going to say, Mr. Chairman," continued Rucker, "that my remarks always sparkle like diamonds when I am discussing anything I know something about, but when I am assigned to a point of order I wanted a little bit to gather myself to even look at the proposition. I could not show up here as even a spurious gem of radiance in the discussion of a point of order if I had not been put forward by my genial friend from Illinois, Mr. Cannon, who asked me to take the laboring oar because I once discussed this matter before."

After more along the same line he expressed the hope that Mr. Underwood would make as good president as he was parliamentarian.

Underwood decided in favor of Rucker.

Difference in Legislators.

Congressman Garrett of Tennessee explained the difference between national and state legislators during a discussion of economy in the house. He said that when men returned from the state capital to their constituents they were met by taxpayers who asked, "How much did you spend?" The national legislator met the same old gleam, but the question was, "How much did you get?"

That explains the whole matter of extravagance in national expenditures. It is a constant game of grab and get. The man who cannot get money to spend in his district for public buildings, river and harbor improvements or in some other way becomes unpopular. That is why the proposition for good roads has proved so popular.

Senatorial Courtesy.

Senatorial courtesy is something that can be used to delay bills as well as to convenience senators. Senator Stone was complaining that no progress was being made with the metal tariff bill, which had been before the senate for several weeks.

"I assume," solemnly remarked Senator Gallinger, "that the senator from Missouri would not press the bill in the absence of the chairman of the finance committee."

Of course Stone disclaimed any such discourteous act.

Supreme Court Takes a Recess.

Washington, May 14.—The supreme court took a recess until May 27, when it will meet to announce decisions.

CLAUDE GRAHAME-WHITE.

TOUR EUROPE BY AIRSHIP

Claude Grahame-White and Bride to Enjoy Novel Honeymoon.

London, May 14.—Since they disclosed the secret that they intend to tour Europe by airship friends of Claude Grahame-White, the English aviator, and Miss Dorothy Taylor of New York have flocked to Grahame-White's workshop to watch him tinkering at the most wonderful bridal conveyance conceived since Cinderella's pumpkin coach.

"This is to be no feverish, nervous little hop and skip air trip," he explained. "It's to be a journey and a long one. We shall do Europe thoroughly and we'll make that hackneyed phrase, 'out of the beaten path,' sound real for once. And as I am to have the honor of carrying the most precious passenger in the world I must look well after my machine."

SENATORS SQUABBLE OVER CANDIDATES

One Wants Roosevelt Cartoon in Congressional Record.

Washington, May 14.—Colonel Roosevelt was again the subject of a spirited passage in the senate.

Senator Stone asked permission to have reproduced in the Congressional Record a certain cartoon entitled "Saint Roosevelt, by Roosevelt," in which the colonel was represented as throttling trusts with one hand and political bosses with the other.

"I request that the cartoon be revised," said Senator Stone, "and instead of the impersonal trusts I would place McCormick of the harvester trust in one hand and Perkins of the steel trust in the other and then I would have him pictured with both feet planted on the prostrate form of Munsey."

Senator Burnham, in charge of the agricultural bill, insisted that Mr. Stone's remarks had nothing to do with the subject.

"We are considering matters pertaining to the bureau of animal industry and may well give some attention to human industry," interjected Senator Gallinger, amid laughter.

Senator Smoot, chairman of the printing committee, invoked the rule which forbids illustrations in the Record. "I take it that the senator's word picture will go into the Record and that ought to be sufficient," said he.

"That shows the senator from Utah is not so much of a Taft man as has been supposed," returned Senator Stone, and the incident was closed.

CAN OF GASOLINE EXPLODES

Two Children Dead and Mother in Critical Condition.

White Earth, N. D., May 14.—Two children were killed when a can of gasoline was overturned and exploded in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Wardlow in this city. Their five-months-old and two-year-old daughters were the victims.

The mother, in trying to save her babies from death, was seriously burned herself and may die. The children were in the midst of the flames when she rushed in and dragged them out, but not until they had been so badly burned that one died in a few minutes, the other dying five hours later.

The shock of the death of her children and the burns she received have been responsible for Mrs. Wardlow's critical condition and it is not believed she can recover.

AMERICAN KILLED IN ENGLAND

V. L. Mason One of Victims in Double Aeroplane Tragedy.

London, May 14.—Victor Louis Mason, an American identified with extensive mining interests and at one time private secretary to the American secretary of war, General R. A. Alger, and to his successor, Elihu Root, was killed while making a flight at Brooklands with the English aviator, E. V. Fisher. Fisher also was killed, by being pitched out of the machine when at a height of about 150 feet.

AFTER PROLONGED DEBATE

Methodists Vote to Re-ain Ban on Amusements.

Minneapolis, May 14.—After a prolonged and heated debate covering two entire sessions the committee on the state of the church, by a two to one vote, adopted the minority report of the subcommittee on amusements, declaring for the retention in the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church paragraph 260, prohibiting dancing, theater going, attending horse races and circuses, games of chance and liquor drinking on penalty of expulsion.

FLOOD DANGER

Encouraging Reports on Lower Mississippi Situation.

New Orleans, May 14.—With the exception of Conrad's point, six miles below Baton Rouge, where sand boils have developed near the base of the levee, only encouraging reports were received at the offices of the United States engineers of the Mississippi river flood situation. The weather bureau reported the river at a stand at Baton Rouge, while other points from Cairo south reported falling stages. Fine weather prevailed all over Louisiana.

House Approves Plan for Popular Election of Senators.

SENATE HAD ALREADY ACTED

All That Now Remains Is Signing of

Resolution and Issuance of Proclamation to the States to Signify Their Wishes on the Proposed Change—Southern Members Bitterly Oppose Measure's Passage.

Washington, May 14.—The house adopted, 237 to 39, a joint resolution to permit the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. It already had passed the senate and now goes to the states for ratification.

All that remains to be done is the formal signing of the instrument and the issuance of a proclamation to the states to signify their wishes on the proposed change.

The vote was preceded by a bitter fight, in which the Southern members joined common cause against the resolution. Led by Representative Bartlett of Georgia, the Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana delegates fought to prevent its passage because of the senate amendment which gave the federal government supervision over the elections. They based their opposition almost entirely on the danger of negro domination.

The first vote taken was on an amendment by Representative Bartlett, which took from the federal government all supervisory powers. It was defeated, 189 to 89. On the vote for the adoption of the resolution, two-thirds of the house being necessary, fifty Democrats deserted.

There was not a single Republican vote cast against the resolution, which was adopted to the accompaniment of thunderous applause.

Direct election of senators was first taken up by congress in 1826. From time to time recurring attempts have been made to make the senate a popular body and have its members elected as are the members of the house. Numbers of these resolutions have died in committee, while others were passed at the last moments of a congress never to receive the president's signature.

Senator Bristow of Kansas introduced in 1911 the resolution that passed. Amended by the house it has been in conference since July 5 last year and if the house had not receded from its opposition to granting federal supervision of elections it might have met the fate of the others.

It was this danger that led the house to agree not to press its views.

PATROL FOR BRITISH COAST

New Scheme of Naval Defense Instituted for United Kingdom.

London, May 14.—Under a new scheme of defense instituted by Winston Spencer Churchill the destroyers of the British fleet commenced this month the continuous patrol of the coasts of the United Kingdom. The northeast coast, menaced as it is by the powerful fleet of the German empire, is necessarily most closely guarded and there the most modern and powerful vessels of the mosquito fleet, supported by submarines, have been stationed.

The whole available forces have been organized into eight flotillas, four in full commission and four in reserve. Of the four active flotillas the first and second, composed of thirty-six of the newest and most powerful vessels, have their base at the naval headquarters at Rosyth, on the east coast of Scotland, facing directly across to Germany.

REBEL ARMY IN BAD TRAP

Force of 2,000 Caught in Canyon and Nearly Annihilated.

El Paso, Tex., May 14.—The slaughter of rebels at Cuatro Ciénegas and vicinity a few days ago was perhaps the most painful blow thus far inflicted upon the insurrecto army.

A dispatch declares the rebels under General Palmar were caught in a canyon and his force of 2,000 was nearly annihilated. Some escaped by climbing over the rocks out of the death trap and others were shot to death from above, where the federal fire was continued for hours with terrible accuracy.

Some of the retreating rebels were overtaken on the desert and killed. Others died from lack of food and water. The barren plains between Cuatro Ciénegas and Sierra Mojada, a distance of 100 miles, are said to be strewn with rebel dead.

SPLIT MARYLAND DELEGATES

Instructed for Colonel, but Half of Taft Men Selected.

Baltimore, May 14.—An agreement was reached at a conference between the leaders of the Taft and the Roosevelt forces to split even on Maryland's delegation to the Republican national convention.

Each side will have two delegates at large and six district delegates—sixteen in all. The delegation will be instructed to vote for Colonel Roosevelt for president as long as he has any possible chance of receiving the nomination.

Robert Cronwell, a lineman employed by the water and light board, died at a local hospital at an early hour this morning. The deceased was taken seriously ill at the City hotel where he and his wife resided. He was able to walk to the carriage and leave it when entering the hospital last night. During the night his condition became alarming and his wife was notified, but he passed away before she arrived. Death was due to some constitutional disorder. The sympathy of their many friends is extended to the family in its sad bereavement.

Library Entertainment

A most delightful program was given at the library hall Saturday afternoon under the supervision of Miss Hooper.

The piano duet by Misses Mildred Skauge and Jean Mosier made a most impressive opening number. The Girls Glee club of the high school did justice to every part of the beautiful "Minnehaha."

Miss Bertha Mahlum gave in a very charming manner "The Rose," and Miss Doris Grondin recited a very humorous piece in such a clear, distinct voice that she impressed the audience as a promising young reader.

The solo by Reed Brown was one of the most enjoyed and most appreciated numbers on the program, his voice and manner of singing being unusually good. And the piano selection by another boy, Henry Elvig, proved to the audience that there is some wonderfully good musical talent among our youths.

Miss Effie Drexler rendered a most beautiful violin solo. The boys' drill and song by Miss Irwin's pupils, and the girls' drill and song by Miss Somers' pupils were both very entertaining and well executed.

Miss Hooper concluded the program with two vocal solos, rendered in Miss Hooper's ever charming way and unusually sweet voice.

The Children's Hour are very grateful to Miss Hooper for the success of this entertainment. ***

JUST TRY A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS

Insures You For Months Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation or a Bad Stomach

Put aside—just once—the Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oils or purgative waters which merely force a passageway through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

WOMAN MURDERED BY A HUMAN FIEND

Mrs. F. J. Page, of Ausland, Found
Murdered Near Her Home 8
Miles From Pillager

AUSTRIAN SUSPECTED OF CRIME

Man Waylaid Her in the Woods and Then Fleed in the Direction of Brainerd

Mrs. F. J. Page, aged 52, the wife of a farmer residing at Ausland eight miles in the country near Pillager, was outraged and murdered by a fiend as she walked to her home. The attack took place in the woods near her home and it is believed occurred on Sunday evening.

The clothes were torn from her body and her throat had been cut. The case is the most outrageous crime committed in the annals of Morrison county.

An Austrian named Tony is suspected of the crime and Sheriff Armstrong of Morrison county and Sheriff Reid of Crow Wing county are on the trail of the suspect.

The Austrian is reported to have bought a ticket from Pillager to Brainerd. An N. P. employee said he saw a man answering the description at the depot at nine o'clock last night, but did not report him for he knew nothing of the murder at the time.

The alleged murderer was a man of cold blooded and inhuman nature. After killing the woman, it is said, he walked to the house and stole from the stove the biscuits she had been baking. A short time ago he threatened to kill a neighbor, brandishing a pitch fork at him. Recently he was caught performing a most bestial act.

A man tallying with the murderer's description has been located at Pequot and Sheriff Reid went there last night to see him. Descriptions were wired to points along the Minnesota & International railway and it is hoped the man will be captured in a short time.

The dead woman leaves surviving a husband and a son, A. J. Page, of Duluth, now employed as switchman at the Brainerd yards. Mrs. A. J. Page came from Duluth last night having received a simple telegram stating that mother was dead. She was nearly prostrated when she heard how her mother-in-law had met her end.

Latest advices indicate that the man at one time worked at the dam on Crow Wing river.

ACCIDENT TO FT. RIPLEY CAR

Twenty-eight Machines Make the Trip From Little Falls to Brainerd to Witness Game

The Little Falls Transcript says: Twenty-eight machines from Little Falls made the trip to Brainerd Sunday carrying the team and over 100 fans. A Bowls machine was also engaged to take a load of local people up and John Bozer of Pierz took four Pierz fans to the game. Chas. Clouse and L. J. Clouse of Ft. Ripley, both attended the game with a number of fans.

The roads to Brainerd are in good condition and the cars all made the trip without serious accident except the machine belonging to Chas. Clouse of Ft. Ripley. This car skidded in the sand on a hill a few miles from Brainerd and struck the railing of a bridge. The brakes on the car and the bridge railing stopped the machine or it would have plunged over a 30-foot bank. The machine was damaged and had to be towed into Brainerd. Little Falls automobilists had plenty of tire trouble and minor accidents but nothing of a serious nature.

SIXTH DISTRICT CONVENTION

A. D. Polk Presided as Chairman and Judge J. T. Hale, of Deerwood
as Secretary

The republican county convention assembled at the court house Monday afternoon, elected 11 delegates, A. M. Opsahl, Dr. R. A. Beise, G. S. McCulloch, Sam Parker, A. D. Polk, S. F. Alderman and Dr. J. A. Thabes, of Brainerd; H. J. Kruse, of Crosby; Judge J. T. Hale, of Deerwood; W. W. Wall, of Ideal, and W. H. Andrews, of Outing, to the state convention at Minneapolis and the same men to the sixth district congressional convention at Brainerd, and adopted a resolution instructing and pledging them to vote as a unit to the support of Theodore Roosevelt for the republican nomination for president.

The meeting was harmonious. There were no debates, no rancor, no bitterness. Taft men as well as Roosevelt men were impartially applauded when they addressed the convention while the assemblage waited for reports of the various committees.

R. R. Wise called the convention to order, making one of his happy, characteristic speeches, and read the call for the meeting. A. M. Opsahl nominated A. D. Polk as temporary chairman and Mr. Polk was unanimously elected. He was escorted to the chair by Dr. R. J. Sewall, the delegate from Crosby. Mr. Polk made a short address to the convention when he accepted the position as chairman.

C. A. Allbright nominated Judge J. T. Hale, of Deerwood, as secretary and he was unanimously elected. On motion, the temporary organization was made permanent.

S. F. Alderman moved that a committee of three be selected to act as a committee on credentials and the chair appointed C. A. Allbright and S. F. Alderman of Brainerd, and H. J. Kruse, of Crosby.

On motion of G. S. McCulloch, the chair appointed a committee on resolutions, G. S. McCulloch, C. B. Rowley and A. M. Opsahl and they reported the resolution on the instruction and pledging of the delegates to Roosevelt which was adopted by the convention.

On motion of F. H. Gruenhagen, the chair appointed a committee of five to select the 11 delegates to the state and district conventions, and their report was adopted without a dissenting vote. On this committee were F. H. Gruenhagen, F. W. Wieland, W. W. Wall, W. H. Andrews and Charles G. Osterlund.

The report made by the credential committee seated 49 delegates. The vote as shown by the preferential primary returns gave Taft 135, Roosevelt 258 and LaFollette 81.

Third ward: A. Stafford proxy for Kenneth McDonald, Hugo Kaatz, Tim Tohey, J. N. Biever, E. A. Arnold.

Fourth ward: John Holvik, John Soderlund, Ernest N. Jones, Gust A. Erickson, K. S. Bredenberg.

Fifth ward: A. M. Opsahl, John Larson, F. H. Gruenhagen, Archie

Purdy, J. A. Hoffbauer and L. P. Johnson.

On the call of the chairman various delegates and visitors addressed the convention. Col. A. J. Halsted mentioned incidents of previous campaigns. Former Alderman Tim Tohey, of the third ward, spoke against cut and dried methods.

Judge J. T. Hale, of Deerwood, an ardent Roosevelt man, was urged to speak. He said he was pleased to see the convention go for Roosevelt. The present was a time for great changes in inventions, changes in amassing of wealth, and changes in laws and conditions. Theodore Roosevelt was the foremost American of his time and the man to sense and grasp this complex situation better than any other man. He was aware of the necessity of changing the ancient order of things to conform with the new. In feudal days might was right. The mailed fist of the baron secured what he wished.

In modern days the might of the vested interests whom the courts have upheld needed regulation. The common people realized that the regulation of certain things was needed. As the Latin maxim said: "Times change and we must change with them." He admitted that Taft was a good jurist, an honest man but given to precedents and therefore bound to the past. Roosevelt was the man to handle the present situation and it was better that the regulation and the changing of conditions as needed should come under the supervision of the republican party guided by Roosevelt's hands.

There was loud applause when the Deerwood mayor concluded his remarks, attesting the fact that there were a lot of Roosevelt men in the convention.

Col. Freeman Thorp, of Hubert, the Lake Edward delegate, spoke in favor of President Taft. Col. Thorp is an eminent portrait painter, soldier and politician and intimate friend of President Taft. He lauded the administration of Taft and said: "Whether Mr. Taft is renominated or not, you will be proud of the man's record and what he has done. Time will tell of the constructive work he has performed for his country."

He explained Taft's position on the arbitration treaties which he said were killed by one, that of Senator Dixon, of Montana, the Roosevelt manager. He referred to the laws Taft had advocated and which have assisted labor. He deprecated any talk of having a new man enter the presidential lists for it would amount to a repudiation of the administrations of both Roosevelt and Taft. In that period more and better legislation had been enacted and enforced than in any 10 years previous of the republican party's history. For his part he expressed no doubt that Taft would be renominated. If Taft won at the Chicago convention, he wanted all who had given Roosevelt their loyalty because of the majority in the primaries, to be equally as loyal in transferring their allegiance to Taft.

His remarks were greeted with loud applause and though pledged to Roosevelt the convention generously applauded Col. Thorp's speech for Taft.

Prof. W. C. Colo spoke about the high school. Miss Caroline Barron depicted the advancement made by the high school. Mrs. J. A. Thabes read Mrs. W. H. Gemmell's paper on "Domestic Science."

At the close of the supper the guests were entertained by the presentation of a dramatization of "Cranford" by Gaskell, by the members of the class, which was greatly enjoyed.

Domestic Science Class at High School
Entertains Friends at Demonstration Dinner

AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Addresse by George D. LaBar, W. E. Erickson, Prof. Cobb, Miss Barron and Others

The domestic science class of the Brainerd high school entertained a company of friends at the high school auditorium last night, the "demonstration dinner," as it was termed, being given as an appreciation of the city.

A superb six course dinner was served at eight o'clock in the evening. The tables were set in the shape of a cross, 160 guests had been invited. Place cards bore the name of each guest and were in the shape of a book of recipes. On the cover was a water color sketch. The second page contained this quotation from Pope:

"More pleased to keep it
Till their friends could come,
Than eat the sweetest
By themselves at home."

Then followed five pages of recipes containing the menu and the ladies who had given the class instruction in preparing these viands, as follows: Graham bread, Mrs. Day; coffee bread, Mrs. Clark; corn bread, Mrs. Cole; muffins, Mrs. Slipp; sour cream cookies, Mrs. Gemmell; quick doughnuts, Mrs. Ludwig; scalloped turnips, Mrs. Dieckhaus; meat croquettes, Mrs. Cobb; cheese timbales, Mrs. Donovan; boiled salad dressing, Mrs. Thabes; omelet, Mrs. Angel; white sauce, Mrs. Farrar; Yorkshire pudding, Mrs. Williams; lemon ice, Mrs. Alderman; nut cream, Mrs. Jones.

The last pages contained the class roll bearing the names of Marie Adair, Emily Anderson, Ethel Angel, Eliza Armstrong, Eleanor Baker, Caroline Barron, Nora Barron, Esther Bellmuth, Margaret Brady, Dorothy Burrell, Marie Clark, Mildred Farwell, Frances Funk, Merle Graham, Jeanette Gibson, Fern Grondin, Kathleen Hawkins, Mary Horak, Mae Jones, Hildegard Koop, Mabel Kronberg, Grace Laurie, Bertha Mahlum, Dolly Mahlum, Winifred McGill, Jean Mosier, Cecelia Miller, Mabel Nyland, Edna Orne, Bessie Paine, Eunice Parker, Marjorie Poppenberg, Mildred Skauge, Maud Williams, Julia Wilson, Laura Nelson, Amorita Theviot, Isabelle Lydden, Jennie Nelson.

The toastmistress was Miss Dolly Mahlum. Miss Bertha Mahlum spoke on how different ladies of the city had furnished the class the recipes for the courses in the dinner.

George D. LaBar, of the school board gave an outline of the money raised by taxation for school purposes and said that Brainerd was doing as much as the foremost cities in the state did for their schools.

W. E. Erickson, the president of the school board, gave reminiscences of the school board during his tenure of office.

Prof. W. C. Colo spoke about the high school. Miss Caroline Barron depicted the advancement made by the high school. Mrs. J. A. Thabes read Mrs. W. H. Gemmell's paper on "Domestic Science."

At the close of the supper the guests were entertained by the presentation of a dramatization of "Cranford" by Gaskell, by the members of the class, which was greatly enjoyed.

Roosevelt was the man to handle the present situation and it was better that the regulation and the changing of conditions as needed should come under the supervision of the republican party guided by Roosevelt's hands. There was loud applause when the Deerwood mayor concluded his remarks, attesting the fact that there were a lot of Roosevelt men in the convention.

Col. Freeman Thorp, of Hubert, the Lake Edward delegate, spoke in favor of President Taft. Col. Thorp is an eminent portrait painter, soldier and politician and intimate friend of President Taft. He lauded the administration of Taft and said: "Whether Mr. Taft is renominated or not, you will be proud of the man's record and what he has done. Time will tell of the constructive work he has performed for his country." He explained Taft's position on the arbitration treaties which he said were killed by one, that of Senator Dixon, of Montana, the Roosevelt manager.

He referred to the laws Taft had advocated and which have assisted labor. He deprecated any talk of having a new man enter the presidential lists for it would amount to a repudiation of the administrations of both Roosevelt and Taft. In that period more and better legislation had been enacted and enforced than in any 10 years previous of the republican party's history. For his part he expressed no doubt that Taft would be renominated. If Taft won at the Chicago convention, he wanted all who had given Roosevelt their loyalty because of the majority in the primaries, to be equally as loyal in transferring their allegiance to Taft.

His remarks were greeted with loud applause and though pledged to Roosevelt the convention generously applauded Col. Thorp's speech for Taft.

Prof. W. C. Cola spoke about the high school. Miss Caroline Barron depicted the advancement made by the high school. Mrs. J. A. Thabes read Mrs. W. H. Gemmell's paper on "Domestic Science."

At the close of the supper the guests were entertained by the presentation of a dramatization of "Cranford" by Gaskell, by the members of the class, which was greatly enjoyed.

Crow Wing county has received through its county auditor a check for $524.94, being the common school apportionment from the state. The law states that $50,000 is to be appropriated annually in aid of the common schools of the state to be distributed in proportion to the acreage of unsold school and other state land within the respective school districts; the amount to be paid to any school district shall not exceed the sum of 5 cents for each acre of state land within any school district, nor more than $250 for each school within any school district. The law further provides that no part of this appropriation shall be used for the purchase of a site or the erection of a school building.

The $50,000 appropriated is not sufficient to pay the limit authorized by the law, so it was necessary to make a reduction of 65 per cent, which makes an appropriation of 3 and 1-4 cents an acre and in no case more than $162.50 for each school in any district.

The amount remitted to this county is based on the acreage of unsold land on May 1, 1912 and on May 1, 1913 another sum will be sent based on the acreage owned by the state at that time.

District No. 81, a large district in the northern part of the county near Swanberg, receives under the terms of the apportionment the largest sum, $44.85. District No. 48, the township of Allen, is next with the sum of $36.01. Districts Nos. 29, 55, 73 and 102 receive the smallest amounts, being $1.30 each.

GIRLS SHOW THEIR ABILITY TO COOK

Domestic Science Class at High School
Entertains Friends at Demonstration Dinner

AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Addresse sby George D. LaBar, W. E. Erickson, Prof. Cobb, Miss Barron and Others

The domestic science class of the Brainerd high school entertained a company of friends at the high school auditorium last night, the "demonstration dinner," as it was termed, being given as an appreciation of the city.

A superb six course dinner was served at eight o'clock in the evening. The tables were set in the shape of a cross. 160 guests had been invited. Place cards bore the name of each guest and were in the shape of a book of recipes. On the cover was a water color sketch. The second page contained this quotation from Pope:

"More pleased to keep it
Till their friends could come,
Than eat the sweetest
By themselves at home."

Then followed five pages of recipes containing the menu and the ladies who had given the class instruction in preparing these viands, as follows: Graham bread, Mrs. Day; coffee bread, Mrs. Clark; corn bread, Mrs. Cole; muffins, Mrs. Slipp; sour cream cookies, Mrs. Gemmell; quick doughnuts, Mrs. Ludwig; scalloped turnips, Mrs. Dieckhaus; meat croquettes, Mrs. Cobb; cheese timbales, Mrs. Donovan; boiled salad dressing, Mrs. Thabes; omelet, Mrs. Angel; white sauce, Mrs. Farrar; yorkshire pudding, Mrs. Williams; lemon ice, Mrs. Alderman; nut cream, Mrs. Jones.

The last pages contained the class roll bearing the names of Marie Adair, Emily Anderson, Ethel Angel, Eliza Armstrong, Eleanor Baker, Caroline Barron, Nora Barron, Esther Bellmuth, Margaret Brady, Dorothy Burrell, Marie Clark, Mildred Farwell, Frances Funk, Merle Graham, Jeanette Gibson, Fern Grondin, Kathleen Hawkins, Mary Horak, Mae Jones, Hildegard Koop, Mabel Kronberg, Grace Laurie, Bertha Mahlum, Dolly Mahlum, Winifred McGill, Jean Mosier, Cecelia Miller, Mabel Nylund, Edna Orne, Bessie Paine, Eunice Parker, Marjorie Poppenberg, Mildred Stange, Maud Williams, Julia Wilson, Laura Nelson, Amorita Theliot, Isabelle Lyndon, Jennie Nelson.

The toastmistress was Miss Dolly Mahlum. Miss Bertha Mahlum spoke on how different ladies of the city had furnished the class the recipes for the courses in the dinner.

George D. LaBar, of the school board gave an outline of the money raised by taxation for school purposes and said that Brainerd was doing as much as the foremost cities in the state did for their schools.

W. E. Erickson, the president of the school board, gave reminiscences of the school board during his tenure of office.

Prof. W. C. Cola spoke about the high school. Miss Caroline Barron depicted the advancement made by the high school. Mrs. J. A. Thabes read Mrs. W. H. Gemmell's paper on "Domestic Science."

At the close of the supper the guests were entertained by the presentation of a dramatization of "Cranford" by Gaskell, by the members of the class, which was greatly enjoyed.

The Rate of Taxation

An entirely unwarranted importance is given in the popular discussion of taxation to the rate of levy. It is often discussed as if it were the main factor in taxation, while as a matter of fact, the important factor is the amount of money to be raised for public purposes in any taxing district. A high rate, of course, is generally regarded with disfavor by investors. One of the first questions asked by an intending investor in lands or business enterprises is: What is the rate of taxation? If it is high it discourages him and he is very liable to regard such a community as an undesirable place for investment.

Knowledge of the several steps taken in the process of raising public revenues, which prior articles have fully explained, should show how erroneous is this importance given to the rate. The rate is a mathematical convenience and may be high or low without really affecting the amount of taxes to be paid, for if assessed values are high the rate will be low, and vice versa; if assessed values are low the rate will necessarily be high.

The very first step taken is the fixing of the amount of money to be raised and that rather than the rate, determines whether the tax will be high or low.

When the amount of money to be raised is determined the fixing of the rate is simply a matter of mathematical calculation. The assessed value of the property and the amount of revenue to be raised are the important features in the tax, the rate being simply the factor used to compute the proportion of the total tax that each taxpayer should contribute.

Let us illustrate: Suppose a taxing district having an assessed value of $1,000,000 desires to raise $10,000 for public purposes by taxation. Clearly a levy of 10 mills or one cent on each dollar of assessed value would be necessary to produce the required amount of revenue. Now suppose the assessed value of the same property was increased to $2,000,000, then 5 mills or one-half of one cent on each dollar would be sufficient to produce the required $10,000. In the first case, A's property being assessed at $1,000, he pays $10.00 in taxes; in the second case, while his assessed value has been doubled, the rate has been cut in half, and he still pays but $10.00 in taxes. The rate thus becomes a mere incident, and not at all a matter of first importance.

It is, however, of great importance that assessed values of the same classes of property be on a uniform basis. In the first illustration given above, if B's farm is assessed at $3,000 his taxes would amount to $30.00, while his neighbor, C, with equally as valuable a farm assessed at $2,000, gets off with a tax of $20.00. But the rate is not responsible for the discrimination in favor of C—either the assessor or the board of review, or both failed to do their duty in that they did not equalize the assessments between B. and C. Equality rather than the rate is the important feature in any just system of taxation.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mills, Tenn., was plainly worried. A bad sore on his leg had baffled several doctors and long resisted remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote "At last I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and was completely cured." Cures burns, ulcers, cuts, bruises and pills. 25 cents at all druggists. tfs

Dangerous.

Miss Caustique—You shouldn't smile so much, my dear. It is dangerous. Miss Passay—Dangerous? Miss Caustique—Yes. When a smile lights up your face it might set off the powder.—Judge.
